

JENNY McCARTHY COVERS THE NEW ISSUE OF YOUR BEAUTY INDUSTRY MAGAZINE

JENNY McCARTHY

Your Beauty Industry Magazine:
Spring 2012

DM: What's your favorite "go to" hair and makeup style for the red carpet?

JM: Simple blow dry. No one can make fun of you for that.

DM: What was your least favorite red carpet look that you did (hair and makeup)? Was there a particular event that makes you cringe when you see photos from it?

JM: Yes but I was also pretty drunk so I don't want to point it out. (Laughs)

DM: Your Candies ad campaign was a huge success. Tell us how it was to work with Candies.

JM: People went nuts for that AD of me on the toilet. Then it became very controversial. We completely knocked it off from a Naomi Campbell editorial. It was a black and white photo in her editorial and as soon as I did a version in color it became controversial. Note to self: if you are gonna get naughty, do so in black and white.

DM: Can you tell us some of the beauty products they used on you for your role on "Two and A Half Men"?

JM: My sister JoJo McCarthy is my Makeup Artist and has been for 14 years now. She also does the judges on Dancing with the Stars and has a successful spray tan business called Brown Buns. Her secret to that show for me was to apply a lot of make up because this is the last and only show to be shot on film. She knew I wasn't gonna get wrinkly because it wasn't HD so she pumped it up and it looked hot.

DM: You are a role model for a positive, healthy body image in women. You tell it like it is. Did you ever struggle with your own self-esteem and body image?

JM: Hell yeah!! But I try to destroy cellulite the best I can.

DM: Do you have any favorite spring trends?

JM: Hate spring. Fall super cool. Boots are my vice.
